May Lyons Found NOT GUILTY BY A JURY

May Lyons was found not guilty yesterday afternoon by a jury in Municipal Judge Barker's court, of a charge of selling liquor without a license. She was arrested by Special Officer E. Barker, on the night of July 23, at a Twenty-fifth street rooming house.

According to the testimony of Officer Barker, which was substantiated by Henry Smuin and E. Carlson, Smuin received a pint bottle of beer from the defendant, and Barker paid for it.

In her own behalf, the witness declared her arrest to have been a "frame-up," the beer having been brought to the rooming house by Smuin and placed upon a table in her room. A rigid cross-examination of the witnesses for the prosecution to establish the credibility of their testimony was conducted by the attorney for the defense. The verdict of the jury was returned at 6 p. m.

WINN FINED $30 IN POLICE COURT TODAY

William Belpas pleaded guilty this morning in the municipal court to a charge of operating a motorcycle at an unreasonable rate of speed on the Twenty-fourth street viaduct and was fined $5. The offense was committed Monday morning, the defendant running down Calvin McGhie, who was on a bicycle. Both men were injured and McGhie's bicycle was demolished. Belpas said the accident was due to his view of the road ahead of him having been blocked by a wagon, which he skirted just before colliding with McGhie. The latter held no malice and stated that the accident was unavoidable.

J. W. Winn was found guilty of petty larceny and was sentenced to serve 30 days in the city jail or to pay a fine of $30. According to the evidence, he was associated with J. Peterson in the theft of a barrel of vinegar from the plant of the Goddard Pickling & Preserving company at Lincoln avenue and Twentieth street, on the night of July 21. Peterson, who is being held on a charge of grand larceny, declared this morning that he had been hired to get a barrel of vinegar from the pickling plant and requested Winn to drive his team, neither being aware that they were committing a crime.

Oscar Johnson, Charles Sanburn, Albert Anderson, S. W. Johnson, Charles Kelly and James Kelly, drunks, were each sentenced to pay $5 fine or to serve 5 days in jail. Sanburn invited a friend to dine with him at the Falstaff cafe yesterday and, after the two had consumed $110 worth of food, found he had only seventy cents in his pocket to pay for it. Anderson was in court yesterday for drunkenness.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Wilson, colored, forfeited $10 bail each. They were arrested last night by Sergeant O. H. Mohlman, on a charge of disturbing the peace.

Grace Wilson and Ruby Jones, colored, pleaded guilty to charges of vagrancy and were each sentenced to pay a $25 fine or to serve 25 days in jail. They were at first charged with robbery, it being alleged that they had picked the pocket of Lloyd Treseder, a transient, but this charge was withdrawn. The women were arrested Tuesday evening by Patrolman Fitzgerald.

Henry Kile and Ed. Larnard, who were booked on charges of drunkenness, each forfeited $5 bail.

W. J. Garvey and J. E. Ward, transient of youthful appearance, were indicted to account for two alleged offenses. According to the testimony of Sergeant H. C. Peterson, Ward was taken into custody on a charge of petty larceny and Garvey on a charge of attempted assault. Both resisted arrest, putting up a vicious fight. For this offense, they were sentenced to serve five days in jail. Ward pleaded guilty to petty larceny, having stolen two bar glasses and a salt shaker from the Pacific bar, and was given an extra five days to serve. Garvey entered a plea of not guilty to attempted assault and his trial was set for tomorrow morning.

GRASSHOPPERS ARE TO BE KILLED BY BANDS OF SHEEP

Principally due to the extremely dry summer of 1915 grasshoppers are found in this season on certain areas of the Mont forest in damaging numbers. They are found in different localities, and seem to cover areas from 50 to 100 acres. Sheep will be driven over the infested areas in compact bodies, a method which is almost sure to result in the complete eradication of the grasshoppers.

While it is fairly hot in Ogden today, it was frost on the mountain peaks of the Wasatch Forest in Southern Idaho.

MRS. NELLIE STONE IS FOUND AT MOUTH OF CANYON

Mrs. Nellie Stone, 2657 Washington avenue, mother of a large family, who disappeared from home last Monday morning shortly before noon, and for whom a searching party including relatives and officers, has been diligently searching, day and night ever called members of her family over the telephone this morning, from the residence, near the mouth of Taylor's canyon, and told them to come and get her.

It is stated by close relatives of Mrs. Stone that the reports circulated about her disappearance were erroneous in some details. Members of the family say that she left the house Monday morning, stating that she was going to visit her sister-in-law. That was the last heard of her until this morning. Why she didn't go to the place designated, no one knows, but it is understood that she was overcome by the heat and, becoming temporarily irresponsible, wandered into the foothills up into Taylor's canyon. When brought home this morning, she was exhausted from hunger and exposure and suffering from a number of bruises and wounds sustained by falls among the rocks.

BUILDING UP THE UTAH INDUSTRIES

The Logan Republican pays an Ogden company the following compliment: "We are in receipt of a souvenir from the Ogden Packing & Provision company, which, in our opinion, is one of the nicest souvenirs ever distributed of this or any other plant or manufacture. The souvenir is a cartoon containing one pound of delicious breakfast bacon. The cartoon is tastefully branded and is wrapped in waxed paper, and the product itself, the very choicest, sliced breakfast bacon it has been our privilege to sample. This is a Utah concern of which the people of the state are justly proud. This concern is spending this year approximately $200,000 in improvements and increasing the capacity of its plant."

The Ogden Packing & Provision company was very prominent in the entertainment of the Cache Valley real estate merchants in their recent get acquainted excursion to Ogden and those who were in attendance on that occasion will not forget the impression they received of the sanitary and up-to-date methods used in curing and packing of selected meats. Neither will they forget the hospitalities extended on that occasion, and in return we shall not forget when ordering selected cured meats to assume for the Mountain Brand and we think that all who are interested in buying the choicest product of the market should do likewise. When doing this we are not only fostering an infant industry, but we also stimulate the livestock industry of our own state which contributes largely to the beef cattle, sheep, and hogs cured at the Ogden plant. Only last Saturday, Mr. Lind of the Ogden Packing & Provision company was in Cache Valley arranging for the purchase of several carloads of fat hogs, all of which will be cured by his company and that portion which is not consumed by the local market will be sent away for consumption in foreign markets."

GOVERNOR WILLIAM SPRY IS DEFEATED IN THE PRIMARIES

Only 13 Delegates Out of 34 in the City Saved From the Wreckage by the Spry Forces—One Delegate Doubtful—Very Heavy Vote Cast—Loss of Weber County May Put Spry Out of the Contest.

Presaging the defeat of the forces of Governor William Spry as far as Weber county is concerned, at the state convention, the Republican "Prohibitionists" won a signal victory at the primaries held in Ogden city last night. Of the thirty-four delegates elected, twenty are conceded to be against the present state executive for renomination and of the fourteen elected on the "Spry" slate, one at least, Samuel G. Dye, is in the doubtful column. When seen this morning, Mr. Dye stated that he was not bound to any candidate, but was unalterably in favor of state-wide prohibition.

The Spry workers, while surprised at the turn of the wheel against their candidate, are taking courage in the thought that the showings made by the governor's slate is against the field, but current local comment to the contrary indicates a virtually solid vote of the "anti-Spry" for Nephil L. Morris at the convention.

The new voting plan at the primaries worked with little friction though numerous challenges of alleged former Democrats were made at the polls. While some of the challenges may have been well taken, according to reliable reports, few voters of Democratic sympathies got to the ballot boxes, the fight for supremacy seeming to be between the regulars who have dominated district politics for years and the party members who, after remaining in the background hoping for a change in the old order of things, decided to get in and make the change themselves.

This was also indicated by the large attendance at the primaries, a total of 231 votes being cast, nearly two-thirds of the total number cast for Senator Reed Smoot in Ogden at the 1914 election. The delegates elected were as follows:

Division of Forces.
The delegates elected are as follows:
First district—D. R. Roberts, Mrs. Margaret Bingham.

Second district—Mrs. Jane Warner, J. H. Riley.

Third district—George A. Watts, Earl R. Geiger.

Fourth district—George W. Wilson, Frank Lowe.

Fifth district—A. H. Moyes, John H. Larson.

Sixth district—William C. Howell, Seventh district—Frank Smythe.

Eighth district—Joseph R. Jepson, George S. Barker.

Ninth district—W. W. Rawson, Austin H. Shaw.

Tenth district—W. C. Parker, David Jensen.

Eleventh district—W. H. Reader, Sr., Thomas Farr, J. M. D. Taylor.

Twelfth district—Chris Flygare, Thomas Burt.

Thirteenth district—Fred W. Chambers, S. G. Dye.

Fourteenth district—William M. McKay, J. J. Brummitt.

Fifteenth district—E. T. Hulaniski, R. A. Moyes.

Sixteenth district—Dr. E. P. Mills, D. R. Wheelwright, Everett Neuteboom.

Seventeenth district—David F. Steele, Mrs. Dora R. Holther.

Two definite slates were in the field in each district, the "Prohibition" and the "Spry." Each faction exerted every effort possible to get its delegates into the victorious column and the vote in detail follows, the "Prohibition" candidates being the first named:

First District—Margaret Bingham, 116, and D. R. Roberts 115 against Carl Allison 86 and J. D. Harris, Jr. 79.

Second—Jane L. Warner 129 and J. H. Riley 132 against Alice Collins 120 and Fred E. Williams 117.

Third District—H. A. Hurdy 6 and Florence Stanford 9 against George A. Watts 85 and Earl Geiger 82.

Fourth District—No opposition against George W. Wilson and Frank Lowe.

Fifth District—M. B. Richardson 102 and E. S. King 102 against John Larson 104 and A. H. Moyes 104.

Sixth—Will Howell 53 against B. F. Shepherd 31.

Seventh District—No opposition against Frank Smythe.

Eighth District—Joseph Jepson 115 and George S. Barker 115 against A. I. Stone 91 and William Craig 91.

Ninth District—W. W. Rawson 117 and Austin A. Shaw 117 against Reuben Wright 38 and J. W. Levedahl 38.

Tenth District—W. C. Parker 51 and David Jensen 53 against Fred Redfield 32 and Christina Harrop 33.

Eleventh District—W. H. Reader 127, Thomas Farr 128 and J. N. D. Taylor 123 against Max Davidson 113, H. H. Wardleigh 118 and Moroni Skeen 109.

Twelfth District—Mrs. E. I. Rich 64 and Thomas Clarke 62 against Chris Flygare 72 and Thomas Burt 70.

Thirteenth District—Fred Foulger, 80 and O. A. Parmley 79 against Fred Chambers 83 and Samuel Dye 82.

Fourteenth District—William McKay and J. J. Brummitt 126 against James DeVine and Dr. F. C. Osgood 71.

Fifteenth District—W. H. Reader, Jr., 40 and J. C. Nye 43 against E. T. Hulaniski 99 and R. A. Moyes 103.

Sixteenth District—Evert Neuteboom 180, Dr. E. P. Mills 188 and David Wheelwright 186 against May and A. R. Heywood 148, Dan Fugh 146 and Clara May Browning 145.

Seventeenth District—David F. Steele 116 and Mrs. Dora Holther 116 against William Doyle and John Wilcox 94.

Many former Democrats, it is declared, voted at the primaries last night and it is claimed that two of the successful candidates for delegates, Joseph R. Jepson and Evert Neuteboom, are Bourbons. A protest was filed with the primary judges and county chairman last night against Mr. Jepson, by Amos I. Stone, who alleged that Jepson attended the Democratic primary Tuesday night.

May Deeds Race
Speculation was rife in the city today as to what extent the result of the local primaries last night could be taken as a forecast of gubernatorial nomination. The predominant opinion was that the anti-Spry forces would prove stronger in the country districts of Weber county than in the city and that the capitulation of this former stronghold, would be fatal to the governor's chances.

C. R. Hollingsworth, county chairman, received a telephone message from Marriott yesterday evening, to the effect that a primary had been held in that district, at which Joseph Bingham had been elected delegate to the state convention, and W. R. Marriott to the congressional convention. The committee sending the message was informed that the primary was held out of order and that another one must be held Friday night, in accordance with the call.

One day last week the thermometer registered 100 degrees at noon and 97 degrees at midnight.

CHINAMEN THOUGHT POLICE WERE HOLDUPS

Three pistol shots fired into the air about midnight last night, awakened residents in the vicinity of Lincoln avenue and Twenty-fourth street. The shots were fired by a startled Chinaman, who thought a hold-up was being staged in the Chinese store at 2426 Lincoln avenue, to alarm the police.

The supposed hold-up, however, proved to be a raid on the store by Special Officer E. Barker, who placed the proprietor, Y. Yuen, and other Chinamen under arrest on a charge of gambling. According to the police, Officer Barker was told by a man who went into the store to purchase some tobacco, that the Chinese were engaged in a gambling game. He entered the store and was faced by Yuen with a revolver in his hands. The clerk, it was afterward learned, thought the plain clothes man was a hold-up and another Chinaman, laboring under the same impression, ran out of a rear door and fired several shots into the air to bring assistance.

By showing his star, Barker persuaded Yuen to lower his gun and the Chinamen were taken to the station. They were later released on bail.
